GOING FOR SECONDS

When it comes to buying a second home, there's something to be said about the two-hour radius rule, whether flying or driving. For San Diegans, Baja appeals as an easy escape, with a multitude of airlines headed daily to Los Cabos International, and the Cross Border Xpress bridge in Otay Mesa, which makes the airport in Tijuana an uncomplicated gateway to La Paz.

CASA NOBLE

If only your own resort will do, the former home of Prince Alfonso de Hohenlohe-Langenburg of Spain has just hit the market for $50 million in Los Cabos. The beachfront compound of Casa Noble (theagencyre.com) has four houses, five casitas, 23 bedrooms and four infinity pools. Or move into the 1,000-acre Costa Palmas (costapalmas.com), set on Baja's quiet East Cape, which will include a beach club and 250-slip marina, organic farms, 18 Trent Jones holes, a Four Seasons Resort and Residences (2019) and Amanvari Resort and Residences (2020) featuring 20 bilevel pavilions. Costa Palmas Beach Club is Gwyneth Paltrow's favorite net hang, and the first private villa residences have just welcomed their owners to Baja's newest paradise.

PLAYA DE LA PAZ

If snorkeling with whale sharks or yachting to empty coves aligns with your tastes, La Paz is calling, as the old-world capital sits at the edge of the Sea of Cortez. Visionary Jeffrey Curtis has dreamed up Playa de la Paz (playadelapaz.com), 23 oceanfront villas with Calacatta marble, Viking appliances, masterful woodworking and curated artwork. The sprawling villas, ranging from $1.3 million to $2.8 million, overlook an Olympic-size pool and sandy beach. Owners enjoy yoga on the open-air pavilion, a beachside gym, stand-up paddling, tennis and stellar service from the bilingual concierge who'll stock the fridge, and set up private chefs and ocean excursions.

TWIN DOLPHIN LOS CABOS

The new Twin Dolphin Los Cabos (twindolphinloscabos.com) is cradled by the magic Santa Maria Bay, home to Montage Residences (montageresidencesloscabos.com) and exclusive Maravilla (maravillaloscabos.com). Starting at $2.7 million, the two- and three-bedroom Montage Residences (52 total) embrace indoor-outdoor living with their ocean-view terraces, plunge pools and lavish kitchens, and reap all the benefits of the Montage resort. Across the arroyo, Maravilla Los Cabos is an indulgent wonderland with its three-tiered infinity pool, gorgeous stone clubhouse, movie theater, 18-hole putting course and more. If you want a seaside lot, don't wait too long, as most of the $10 million oceanfront dirt has been sold.
